

Counts before freeze use public evidence; the final red count is read only after the frozen index exists.